Dear Sir / Madam,

Subject: Request to attend webinar on Section 301 Investigation against India

In a landmark turn of event, the United States Trade Representative has initiated investigations on the trade practices of various countries, including India, under Section 301(b) of the Trade Act of 1974. As part of this investigation, the US government will examine whether India's exports to America is driven by excess capacity and production in key manufacturing sectors, including plastic sector.

The findings of this investigation will shape future trade regulations of USA and it may have consequential impact on India's plastic sector.

Plexconcil requests its members to attend an important webinar on this subject organised by Lakshmikumaran Sridharan attorneys from 4:00 pm to 5:00 pm on March 19, 2026.

By attending this webinar, members may gain insights on:

- Which sector will be most affected by this investigation
- How Indian industry can defend their interest in this investigation
- Timelines & procedures of this investigation

We look forward to your participation in this webinar by registering on the below link:
