Dear Sir/Madam,

Subject: Regarding implementation of the first tranche of tariff concessions under India-Oman CEPA

Ref: Notification No. 20/2026-Customs dated 31st MAY 2026

We wish to inform you about the above-mentioned notification issued by the Department of Revenue (Ministry of Finance) regarding implementation of the first tranche of tariff concessions under the India-Oman Comprehensive Economic Partnership Agreement (CEPA) which was signed on 18 December 2025.

This trade notification slashes or eliminates import duties on designated items imported from Oman under this agreement.

Members are requested to refer to the detailed notification to review preferential Basic Customs Duty (BCD) rates (Table I) and the Agriculture Infrastructure Development Cess [AIDC rates] (as applicable for certain plastic products) (Table II) and also the Tariff Rate Quota (Table III) here:

Importers must ensure strict compliance with the "Rules of Origin" requirements and present a valid Preferential Certificate of Origin (CoO) to avail the reduced duty rates under this notification.

This notification shall come into force on the 1st day of June, 2026.

Best Regards

Bharti Parave
