CERTIFICATE COURSE
IN INTERNATIONAL BUSINESS

8 WEEKS
ONLINE

■ WHY SHOULD YOU ATTEND?

Export diversification is the need of the hour, both start-up companies as well as established firms are looking forward to the managers having an in-depth understanding of doing business across various global markets and thus enabling companies to develop a customized business plan and market entry strategies and thus prove to be an asset for firm's expansion plans. Exporting can reduce your business risks by developing alternative markets, should a slow down or disruption occur in your domestic market. Manage seasonal slowdowns. Exporting allows you to sell to other markets that are complementary to your domestic customers' seasons.

Being an export-oriented body managed professionally the curriculum and teaching method will be at par with international standards and need. In the present scenario, there are better business opportunities and good job offers for trained & skilled people in the field of International Business.

The Plastics Export Promotion Council (PLEXCONCIL) the apex body of the Govt of India, sponsored by the Ministry of Commerce & Industry in its pursuit to support and help the industry to expand and to launch into the lucrative international business has designed the Certificate Course in International Business to professionalize the export business and to open better employment opportunities for enthusiastic youth. The objective of this course equips the participants to face the challenges of the international market while acquiring the practical knowledge of being an Export-Import Business.

■ ACCREDITATION & CERTIFICATION

PLEXCONCIL which is the premier body in promoting Plastics exports from India is a "Training Partner" with the The Rubber, Chemical & Petrochemicals Skill Development Council (RCPSPDC) which is the Sector Skill Council under the NSDC (National Skill Development Corporation).
